VOLUME 10 INDEX

NO. 1, FALL 1999 1–124
NO. 2, WINTER 1999 125–229
NO. 3, SPRING 2000 230–348
NO. 4, SUMMER 2000 349–481

A

Academic politics, 88
Accountability, 350; central-local relationship and, 425, 426, 429–430; community collaborations as strategy for, 127; ethics and, 98–99; evaluation and, 463; historical background on movement of, 93–94; issues of, 93–101, 232, 341–344; policy and, 93–96, 97–98, 100–101; service quality and meeting requirements for, 67; in social service organizations, 67, 93–101
Accreditation systems, to enforce equal opportunity for women, 265–266
Adaptation. See Organizational adaptation
"Adaptive Strategies of Nonprofit Human Service Organizations in an Era of Devolution and New Public Management," 287–303
Additive growth strategies, 188
Admission fees: to art museums, 28; to history museums, 35
Advertising, arts organization, 172–173, 174
Advisory Center for Teens (ACT), 141–142
Affiliated organizations, 365. See also Central-local relationships
Africa, 381
Aga Khan Rural Support Programme, 388
Age Concern England, 428, 429, 430
Age of Grantmanship, 93–94
Agents, 234; defined, 401; identification and segmentation of, 401–403; service-customer matrices of, 405. See also Service-customer matrices
Alcohol Outpatient Services (AOS), 147
Alexander, J.: "Adaptive Strategies of Nonprofit Human Service Organizations in an Era of Devolution and New Public Management," 287–303; "The Impact of Devolution on Nonprofits: A Multiphase Study of Social Service Organizations," 57–70
Alexander, T., "Roles and Responsibilities of Community Nonprofit Boards," 153–167
Alternative medical treatment case study, service-customer matrices in, 411–413
Alumni relations, as fundraising cost, 43
American Association of Museums, 1989 Survey of Museums, 30–36
American Evaluation Association, 332
American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), 306
American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA): characteristics of, 77; scenario planning at, 77–82
American Symphony Orchestra League survey, 271–272, 276
Ammerman, N. C., Congregation and Community, reviewed, 457–462
Anheier, H. K., Defining the Nonprofit Sector: A Cross-National Analysis, reviewed, 209–214
Ann Arbor, Michigan, merger case study, 140–151
Arbor Circle Corporation, 137–151; agencies merged in, 141–142; design components of, 143–144; evolution of, 140–151; lessons learned from, 150–151; organizational structure of, 145–147
Archambault, E., The Nonprofit Sector in France, reviewed, 209–214
Art museums, funding determinants for, 25–29, 30–33. See also Museums, art and history
Articles: "Adaptive Strategies of Nonprofit Human Service Organizations in an Era of Devolution and New Public Management," 287–303; "A Better Method for Analyzing the Costs and Benefits of Fundraising at Universities," 39–56; "The Four C's of Government Third Sector Relations: Cooperation, Confrontation, Complementarity, and Co-Optation," 375–396; "Healthy Organizations, Unhealthy Communities?", 355–373; "How Should an International NGO Allocate Growth? A Growth Plan for PLAN International," 185–201; "The Impact of Devolution on Nonprofits: A Multiphase Study of Social Service Organizations," 57–70; "The 'Income Gap' and the Health of Arts Nonprofits: Arguments, Evidence, and Strategies," 271–286; "Merger as a Strategic Response to Government Contracting Pressures: A Case Study," 137–152; "The Nonprofit Sector and Gender Discrimination: A Preliminary Investigation into the Glass Ceiling," 251–269; "Relating the Central and the Local: Options for Organizational Structure," 421–433; "The Relationship Among Funding Sources for Art and History Museums," 21–37; "Resisting Invisibility: Arts Organizations and the Pursuit of Persistent Presence," 169–183; "Returns on Fundraising Expenditures in the Voluntary Sector," 5–19; "The Role of the Economic Sector in the Provision of Care to Trusting Clients," 233–249; "The Role of Nonprofit Management Support Organizations in Sustaining Community Collaborations," 127–136; "Roles and Responsibilities of Community Nonprofit Boards," 153–167; "Using Service-Customer Matrices in Strategic Analysis of Nonprofits," 397–420

Artistic product, 175, 278; demand for, strategies for increasing, 278–280; productivity and, 275

Arts organizations: brand validation of, 174–175; cost disease in, 274–277, 281; demand for, 23, 24–25, 35, 274, 281; demand-side remedies for, 278–280, 281–284; educational outreach for, 280; facilities of, 171–173, 180; funding interactions of, 21–36; government funding of, 22–23, 25–26, 273, 277–278; impact of technological advances on, 273–274; income gap for, 231, 271–284; invisibility of, 169, 180; performances of, 173–174; persistent presence for, 125, 169–183; personalities in, 175–176, 177; productivity growth/nongrowth in, 275–277; public perceptions of, 170, 178–179, 180–181; remedies for, 277–280, 281–284; seasons of, 173–174; signage of, 171–173; size of, economic strategies based on, 281–284; social appeal of, 279, 283–284; "superstar," 281, 282; threats to health of, 272–273; wage increase in, 274–275

Aspen Institute Nonprofit Sector Research Fund, 308

Asset management costs, 43–44, 48–50, 52–54

Association for Spina Bifida and Hydrocephalus (ASBAH), 423, 427–428, 429, 430

Associational model, 460

Associations: grassroot, factors in external impact of, 103–112; nonprofit management education and, 90; scenario planning for professional, 71–82; trade, 422

Asymmetrical information: applied to child-care facilities, 236–237, 240–247; theory of, 235–236

"At risk" populations, organizations that serve, 61–62

AXIA Performance Centre, evaluation resource of, 466, 470–471

B

Backman, E. V., "Healthy Organizations, Unhealthy Communities?", 355–373

Balanced scorecard, 465; resources for using, 466, 468–469

Barbetta, G. P., The Nonprofit Sector in Italy, reviewed, 209–214

Basic State Grants, 25–26

Baumol's cost disease, 274–277

Benchmarks, for fundraising expenditures, 7

Beneficiaries: impact of commercialization on, 363; as stakeholders, 321–322, 334. See also Clients

BENFAM, 385

Bequest expectancies, changes in, 45–46, 52–54

Best of Intentions, The: The Triumphs and Failures of the Great Society Under Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon (Unger), reviewed, 93–101

Best practices, 181, 473–474

"Better Method for Analyzing the Costs and Benefits of Fundraising at Universities, A," 39–56

Billis, D., interviewed, 85–92

Block grant funding for states, 291
Blood transfusion, 369
Board evaluation, 160
Board-executive relationship, 351
Board meetings, 157, 164–165
Board members: boundary-spanning activities of, 298; commercialization and, 363; perspectives of, on unionization, 312–313, 315; as program evaluation stakeholders, 334; reaction of, to professionalization, 297–298; relationship of, with managers, 323
Board restructuring, 367–368
Board roles and responsibilities, 125, 153–167, 322; in amateur sport organizations, 156–157; for community boards, 153–167; descriptive statistics of, 159–161; factor analysis of, 161–163; as final arbiter, 155–156; framework for, 157–165; literature review on, 154–157; moral responsibility and, 155; need for framework of, 153–154; operations category of, 162, 163–165; pyramid of, 164; resource planning category of, 162, 163–165; strategic activities category of, 161, 162, 163–165; study and survey of, 157–167; uses of framework of, 164–165
Boardman, A. E., "Using Service-Customer Matrices in Strategic Analysis of Nonprofits," 397–420
Book Reviews: "Defining the Nonprofit Sector Cross-Nationally: Differing Cultures, Roles, and Histories," 209–214; "Has the Time Come to Reevaluate Evaluation? or, Who Will Be Accountable for Accountability?", 93–101; "Private Nonprofits in a Public Sector Compendium," 325–329; "Understanding Congregations as Voluntary Organizations: New Insights for the Nonprofit Sector," 457–462
Boston Ballet, 368–369
Bottom-up strategies, 421–422
Boundary spanners, 436–437; profile of, 441–447
Boundary-spanning activities, 298–299, 436–437. See also Collaborations
Boundaryless organizations, 431–432
Boy Scouts of America, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Boys and Girls Clubs of America, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Bozzo, S. L., "Evaluation Resources for Nonprofit Organizations: Usefulness and Applicability," 463–472
Branding, 174–175
Brazil, 385
British Red Cross Society, 425, 426, 428, 430
Brooks, A. C., "The 'Income Gap' and the Health of Arts Nonprofits: Arguments, Evidence, and Strategies," 271–286
Brudney, J. L., Commentary, 475
Budgeting, as board role/responsibility, 157, 160, 162, 163
Bulletin Board, 121–124, 227–229, 345–347, 479–481
Business management techniques: as adaptation strategy, 295–298; in U.K. nonprofit sector, 321, 324

C

Campaigning organizations, 322–323, 424, 429. See also Political advocacy
Canada, 385
Canadian Centre for Philanthropy, 463, 464
Canadian Hemophilia Society, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Career ladders, 350
Carnegie Corporation, 216
CASE/NACUBO fundraising cost-benefit analysis guidelines, 40, 41–42, 43, 45, 49–50, 52
Catalyzing, 388
Cause, categories of: direct mail recruitment revenues by, 11; NTEE classification and, 117; relative efficiency of fundraising methods by, 16
Central bodies: with individual members, 422; with local branches, 422
Central-local relationships and structures, 421–433; age and, 424; boundaryless organizations and, 431–432; examples and models of, in United Kingdom, 426–429; external and structural factors in, 424–426; factors that affect, 423–426; internal factors in, 423–424; models of, 422–423; nature of activity and, 424; origin and,

423–424; perspectives on, 430–431; service variability and, 424; typology of, 422–423, 429; value of different models of, 429–430
Centre for Health Promotion, University of Toronto, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Centre for Voluntary Organisation, 85–86
Challenge Grants (NEA), 26
Chang, C. F., Commentary, 117–119
Change: religious congregations and, 457–462; resistance to organizational, in case study, 451–455
Change management, 73. See also Scenario planning
"Changing Challenges of Management and Leadership in the U.K. Voluntary Sector, The: An Interview with Stuart Etherington," 319–324
Charity Commission, 323
Chicago Symphony, 282
Chicago-area social service organizations, 361
Chief executive officer (CEO), board roles related to, 156, 159, 160, 161, 162
Child Guidance Clinic (CGC), 141–142
Child-care facilities: asymmetrical information theory applied to, 235–237, 240–247; clients of, 234; demographic trends and need for, 233; fees of, 239; financial solvency of, 239, 244–245; incorporation variable for, 241; logistic regression model of, 240–242, 244; nonprofit versus for-profit, quality of, 231, 233–247; parental involvement in, 236, 237, 239, 240, 241, 243, 244; quality variables in, 236–247; regression methodology applied to, 240; research and theory related to, 234–236; stability of environment/regrouping in, 236, 237, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243–244; staff-to-child ratio in, 236, 237, 238, 239, 241, 242, 243; staff wages in, 236, 237, 238–240, 241, 243; study descriptive findings for, 238–240; study methodology and sample for, 238
Child care, welfare reform and, 64–65
Citizens' advice bureaus (CABs), 427
Civil Rights Act of 1964, 251, 253; Title II, of 1991, 253
Civil society, 320, 324, 370–371, 461–462
Cleveland Museum of Art, 178
Cleveland Orchestra, 170–171, 172, 174–175, 178
Cleveland/San Jose Ballet, 170–171, 173–174
Clients: defined, 234, 400; identification and segmentation of, 400–403; key attributes valued by, 413; service-customer matrices based on, 404. See also Beneficiaries; Service-customer matrices
Coalition of Neighbourhood Centres, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Coercion, 386–387
Coevaluation, 98. See also Participatory evaluation
Coghlan, A. T., "Program Evaluation Practice in the Nonprofit Sector," 331–339
Cohesiveness, 170, 178, 179
Collaboration Questions, 438, 440
Collaborations: benefits of, 435–436; commercialization and, 364–366; community, 127–135, 364–365; executive profile for, 352, 435–447; government-nonprofit, 384–385; in relation to funding, 322. See also Community collaborations
Collaborative evaluation. See Participatory evaluation
"Collaborator Profile for Executives of Nonprofit Organizations, A," 435–450
Collective action, social networks and, 357–358
Colombia, 385
Commentary, 117–119, 341–344, 473–477
Commercialization, 291; evaluation of, 369–370; history of, in nonprofit sector, 360–361; impact of, on community social networks, 355–371; impact of, on stakeholder relationships, 363–364; propositions and hypotheses regarding, 366–369; retaining public service character through, 299–300; social capital and, 350, 351, 355–371; trend toward, 360–362; volunteerism and, 368–369. See also Earned income; Professionalization
Common law, 210, 216
Communities: conflicts between agency personnel and, 203–207; impact of nonprofit commercialization on, 355–371; religious congregations and, 457–462; social networks and capacity of, 356–360, 365–366

Community agenda, 130–131, 132–133
Community-based social service organizations, 61, 62, 292, 300–301
Community capacity: defined, 356; nonprofit commercialization and building of, 365–366; nonprofit organizations and social networks related to, 356–360
Community collaborations: board roles related to, 160, 161, 162; challenges of, 128; commercialization and, 364–366; conflicts of interests in, 134; initiators of, 128; management support organization role in, 127–135; need for, 127; policy-centered integration in, 129; program-centered integration in, 129; social networks and, 356–360. See also Collaborations
Community empowerment, 359
Community foundations, 218, 221, 223. See also Foundations
Community grassroots associations, effectiveness factors for, 104–106. See also Grassroots associations
Community mental health center reorganization, 365
Community needs, board roles related to, 159, 160
Community relations, board roles related to, 157, 162, 163
Community social networks, 351
Community support organization (CSO) model, 135
Company-holding foundations, 218, 220–221
Complementary government-nonprofit relationship, 387–388; characteristics and definition of, 387–388; examples of, 388
Concert innovations, 278–279
Conflicts of interest, in community collaborations, 134
Confrontational government-nonprofit relationship, 385–387; characteristics and definition of, 385–386; examples of, 386–387; government coercion in, 386–387; NGO defiance in, 386
Congregation and Community (Ammerman), reviewed, 457–462
Connor, J. A., "The Role of Nonprofit Management Support Organizations in Sustaining Community Collaborations," 127–136
Consortium on Financing Higher Education (COFHE), 52
Conspicuous consumption, 279, 283–284
Constituent relations, as fundraising cost, 43
Consumer income, and demand for arts, 279
Continuing professional education, opportunities for, for women versus men, 262–263
Continuum of Care, 133
Convenience samples, 437–438
Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species, 385
Cooperative government-nonprofit relationship, 384–385; characteristics and definition of, 384–385; examples of, 385
Co-optive government-nonprofit relationship, 388–389; characteristics and definition of, 388–389; examples of, 389
Corbett, C. J., Commentary, 341–344
Corporate fundraising: efficiency of, 10, 16; prevalence and use of, 15
Corporate giving: relationship of, to other funding sources, 27–28; as strategic philanthropy, 362
Corporate model of leadership, 297
Corporate or company-sponsored foundations, 217, 219, 220. See also Foundations
Corporate organizational structures, 422
Corporations, foundations as, 216. See also Foundations
Cortés, M., "Private Nonprofits in a Public Sector Compendium," 325–329
Cost-benefit analysis: of fundraising, 39–55; for growth decisions, 190. See also University fundraising cost-benefit analysis
Cost disease, 274–277, 281; demand-side remedies for, 278–280; supply-side remedies for, 277–278, 280
Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE), 40, 41–42, 43, 45, 49–50, 52, 54
Council for the Aid to Education (CAE), 50–52
Council for Voluntary Service (CVS), 128
Council on Accreditation for Services to Families and Children (COA), 256–257, 265–266
Councils for voluntary service (CVS), 428
Court psychologists unionizing, 306–307

Credibility: central-local relationships and, 430; of nonprofit management, 475; in program evaluation, 337, 338, 339
Crisis management, 299
Cross-national definitions: of foundations, 215–223; of nonprofit sector, 209–214
Crowding-out effects, 22–23, 24, 278
Customers: defined, 400–401; identification of, 398, 400–401; organizational versus individual, 403; segmentation of, 401–403; types of nonprofit organization, 400–401
Cuyahoga County, Ohio, study of social service organizations, 58–69; adaptation strategies identified by, 293–301; focus group results of, 62–68, 292–300; methodology of, 59–60, 292–293; survey results of, 60–62; themes from, 62–68

D

Data collection methods, for program evaluation, 334, 465
Davies, B., Commentary, 476
Dean, W., Commentary, 474–475
Decentralization, 421, 426, 431. See also Central-local relationships and structure
Decision making: desire for participatory, as unionization motivation, 309–310, 316; impact of contracting on, 138–139; in merged organization, 144–145, 146; strategic, 81–82, 351–353
Decision-making phase of merger, 141–143
Deficit increase in arts organizations, 271–273. See also Income gap
Defining the Nonprofit Sector: A Cross-National Analysis (Salamon and Anheier), reviewed, 209–214
"Defining the Nonprofit Sector Cross-Nationally: Differing Cultures, Roles, and Histories," 209–214
Degrees, in nonprofit management, 86, 89
Delaware Symphony Orchestra (DSO), 171, 173
Demand: decrease in, for performing arts organizations, 274, 281; impact of, on museum earned income, 23, 24–25, 35; market failure theory and, 235; need versus, in social services, 63; for nonprofit management education, 89; strategies for increasing, for arts organizations, 278–280
Democratic society, minority issues in, 327–329
Demographic factors in executive collaborativeness, 439, 441, 442
Demographics: as determinant of giving, 22, 23–24, 28; trends in U.S., 233, 252, 327
Department of Third Sector Studies, 90–91
Dependent-care facilities: demographic trends and need for, 233; quality of nonprofit versus for-profit, 231, 233–247
DeRuiter, G. L., "Merger as a Strategic Response to Government Contracting Pressures: A Case Study," 137–152
Developing countries: co-optation in, 388; grassroots associations in, effectiveness factors for, 106–108
Development grassroots associations: defined, 106; effectiveness factors for, 106–108
Development office costs, 43–45, 48–50, 52–54
Devolution: in 1980s, 291–292; community collaborations as strategy for, 127; definition and ideology of, 57–58; impact of, on social service organizations, 57–69, 137–138, 287–288, 300; mergers as strategy for, 137–151; survival strategies for dealing with, 127, 137–138, 231, 287–301; as worldwide trend, 209–210, 213, 320–321, 323–324
Diaz, W. A., Commentary, 476
Diffusive growth strategies, 189
Direct mail: efficiency of, 10–12, 16; prevalence and use of, 10
Direct-response press advertising: efficiency of, 10; prevalence and use of, 13–14
Disaggregated data, 405, 417–418
Discriminant Function Analysis, 440–441, 443, 445
Disposition, 170, 176–177, 179
Donor development, efficiency of direct-mail, 10, 12, 16
Donor motivations, 5–6
Donor perceptions, of use of funds, 6–8, 17

Donor recruitment, efficiency of direct-mail, 10–12, 16
Donor relationships, 350
Donor segregation, 283–284
Donors: relative importance of, as stakeholders, 321–322; standing up to, 322
Door-to-door distribution: efficiency of, 10; prevalence and use of, 13
Downsizing, 421
Drucker, P. F., Commentary, 477
Drug treatment programs, 365
Duration, 170, 177–178, 179

E

Earned income: of arts museums, 22, 24–25, 28, 33; determinants of, 23, 24–25, 35; of history museums, 35; relationship of, to other funding sources, 22, 28, 33. See also Commercialization
Eastern and Central Europe, 320
Economic disparities, 327–328
Economic Opportunity Program, 104
Economic rational choice model, 109
Economies of scale, 430
Editor's Notes, 1–3, 125–126, 231–232, 349–354
Education, nonprofit management and leadership, 85–92; Department of Third Sector Studies proposal for, 90–91; disciplines of, 88, 90; international enterprise for, 91–92; for professional development, 323; sector boundary issues in, 87, 89, 327; university-based, status and future of, 85–92
"Effective Grassroots Association II, The: Organizational Factors That Produce External Impact," 103–116
Empowerment evaluation. See Participatory evaluation
Entrepreneurs, 86
Etherington, S., interviewed, 319–324
Ethics: accountability and, 98–99; public trust and, 324
Europe: foundations in, 215–216, 218–223; nonprofit sector in, 210–214, 320–321
European Foundation Centre, 218
European Union (EU), 213, 320, 324
Evaluation: approaches to, 464–465, 466; of commercialization, 369–370; issues of, 93–101, 232, 341–344; organizational, 97–98; organizational capacity for, 465, 469–470; policy and, 93–96, 97–98, 100–101; program, 99–100, 232, 331–339
Evaluation phase of merger, 147–150
Evaluation resources and manuals, 352, 463–472; evaluation approaches and, 464–465; listed and rated, 466; listed and reviewed, 470–471; research study methods for, 464; research study of, 463–472
"Evaluation Resources for Nonprofit Organizations: Usefulness and Applicability," 463–472
Evaluation tools: creation of useful, 341–342; resources for, 463–472; sample, to determine potential social utility, 343
Evaluation with Power: A New Approach to Organizational Effectiveness, Empowerment, and Excellence (Gray and Associates), reviewed, 93–101
Executive-board relationship, 351, 473
Executive compensation, 350
Executive director (ED), board roles related to, 156, 159, 160, 161, 162
Executives as collaborators, 352, 435–447; boundary-spanning roles of, 436–437; demographic factors in, 439, 441, 442; discussion and conclusions about, 441–446; executive perceptions of, 446; extraversion-introversion and, 436, 437, 438, 441, 443, 444; future research on, 447; gender and, 436, 437, 439, 441, 442, 443, 444–445; instruments for measuring, 438–441; predictors of, 441; profile of, 441–447; role ambiguity and, 436, 437, 438, 441, 443, 445–446; role-boundary occupational stress and, 436, 437, 438, 439, 441, 443, 444; study method and sample for, 437–438; study results for, 441, 442–443; thinking-feeling and, 437, 438, 441, 443
External environment: community grassroots associations' relationships with, 106; development grassroots associations' relationships with, 107–108; grassroots associations' impacts on, 103–112; scenario planning and, 72

Extraversion-introversion, 436, 437, 438, 441, 443, 444

F

Facilitator, for merger decision-making phase, 142
Facilities, arts organization, 171–173, 180
Faith-based social service organizations, 61, 63, 292, 300–301. See also Religious congregations; Religious organizations
Family Impact, 141–142, 143
Family Medical Leave Act of 1993, 262
Family Service Units (FSU), 423, 427, 429
Features: "The Changing Challenges of Management and Leadership in the U.K. Voluntary Sector: An Interview with Stuart Etherington," 319–324; "An Interview with David Billis," 85–92; "When Change Hits the Fan," 451–455; "Where Loyalties Lie," 203–207
Federal funding: of art museums, 30, 31; of arts organizations, 22–23, 25–26; determinants of, 26, 30, 31; of history museums, 33; relationship of other funding sources to, 22, 30, 31, 33, 36. See also Government funding
Federal funding cutbacks: in 1980s, 291–292; accountability and, 95–96; for arts organizations, 21–22, 23, 273; commercialization and, 361–362; in France, 211–212; impact of devolution and, 57–69; impact of, on social service organizations, 58–59, 137–138, 287–288, 300; in Italy, 213; survival strategies for dealing with, 127, 231, 287–301; in Sweden, 213; as worldwide trend, 209–210, 213–214, 319–320. See also Devolution; Government contracting; Privatization
Federal organizational structures, 421, 422, 428, 429–430
Federated organizations, 422
Fees: for art and history museums, 28, 35; for child-care facilities, 239; for social services, 365
Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), 45–46
Financial surpluses, 351
Fine, A. H., "Program Evaluation Practice in the Nonprofit Sector," 331–339
Five forces model, 411
Flattened organization, transformation to, in case study, 451–455
Flexibility: in central-local organizational structures, 422, 425, 426–427; of international nongovernmental organizations, 194, 197
Focus groups, 59–60, 292–293
Foundation Center, 217, 223
Foundations: art museum funding by, 27–28, 32; categories of, 217–220; defining, in comparative perspective, 215–223; fundraising to, 15–16; legal definitions of, 216–217, 218, 221; in United States and Germany, compared, 215–223
Founders: of arts organizations, charismatic appeal of, 175–176; of social service organizations, strategic expansion and, 295
Four-C's model of government-nonprofit relationships, 351, 383–391; background for, 375–383; co-optation in, 388–389; complementarity in, 387–388; confrontation in, 385–387; cooperation in, 384–385
"Four C's of Government Third Sector Relations, The: Cooperation, Confrontation, Complementarity, and Co-Optation," 375–396
France, nonprofit sector in, 211–212, 320
Franchise model, 427
From the Field, 125; "A Collaborator Profile for Executives of Nonprofit Organizations," 435–450; "A House Divided: How Nonprofits Experience Union Drives," 305–317; "The Suitability and Application of Scenario Planning for National Professional Associations," 71–83
Functional growth, 189
Funding sources: for art and history museums, 21–36; commercialization and new class of, 363; determinants of, models of, 22–25; impact of merger on, 148–150; interactions of, 21–36, 350–351; as program evaluation stakeholders, 334; simultaneous equation system of, 25–36; single-equation estimates of, 24

Fundraiser motivations, 118
Fundraising, as board role/responsibility, 160, 162, 163
Fundraising abuse: expenditures and, 6–7; factors in, 117–118
Fundraising benefits: accounting for, 40–55; changes in pledges and bequests and, 45–46, 52–54; private grants as, 41–42, 50–52. See also University fundraising cost-benefit analysis
Fundraising costs: accounting for, 40–55; alumni, public, and constituent relations as, 43; asset management as, 43–44, 48–50, 52–54; development office costs as, 43–44, 48–50, 52–54; donor perceptions of expenditures and, 6–8; fundraising methods and, 117–118; in university campus study, 47–48; university leaders' time as, 42–43
Fundraising efficiency: defining, 40–41; donor perceptions of, 6–8; effectiveness versus, 40–41; evaluation of, methodology for, 39–55; U.K. survey of, 9–17; university, 39–55
Fundraising methods: cost-benefit analysis of, 39–55; cost-benefit ratios by type of, 46; fundraising costs and, 117–118; relative efficiency of, 1, 5–17

G

Gelles, E., "The Role of the Economic Sector in the Provision of Care to Trusting Clients," 233–249
Gender, collaborative abilities and, 436, 437, 439, 441, 442, 443, 444–445
Gender discrimination, 251–266; background on discrimination and, 253; findings of, in glass ceiling study, 259–261
Geographic expansion of international nongovernmental organizations: methods of handling, 189–190; in PLAN International case study, 185–200; strategic drift and, 187–188, 190
Germany, foundations in, 215–216, 218–223
Ghana, 381
Gibelman, M., "The Nonprofit Sector and Gender Discrimination: A Preliminary Investigation into the Glass Ceiling," 251–269
Giving, private. See Private giving
Glass Ceiling Act of 1991, 253
Glass Ceiling Commission, 253, 265
Glass ceiling for women, 231, 251–266; background on, 253; defined, 251; findings on, 257–263; future research directions on, 264–265; remedies for, 265–266; study limitations and, 263–264, 265; study methodology for, 256–257; study of, definitions in, 255; women in the nonprofit labor force and, 254–255
Global framework for government-nonprofit relationships, 383–391
Global nonprofit trends, 209–210, 213, 320–321, 323–324; in government-nonprofit relationship, 376–377, 380–382
Goal displacement and distortion, 290
Goals, divergence and convergence of, in government-nonprofit relationships, 383–391
Goldman, S., "A Collaborator Profile for Executives of Nonprofit Organizations," 435–450
Golensky, M., "Merger as a Strategic Response to Government Contracting Pressures: A Case Study," 137–152
Good service, 246
Goodwill Industries International, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Governance, 321, 324; commercialization and, 364, 367–368; government-nonprofit relationship and, 381
Government: as agent or sponsor, 401, 410; diversity within, 391
Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB), 46
Government contracting: central-local structures and, 424–425; government-nonprofit relationship and, 136–138, 381, 385; impact of, on social service organizations, 57–69, 137–139, 287–288, 300–301; loss of public character and, 65–66, 69; merger as strategy for, 137–151; unionization and, 305–306, 315–316; in United Kingdom, 319–321. See also Devolution; Federal funding cutbacks; Privatization

Government funding: of arts organizations, 22–23, 25–26, 273, 277–278, 281; commercialization trends and, 362; impact of, on social service organizations, 59; relationship of, to other funding sources, 32–36; relationship of, to private giving, 22–23, 24, 27–28, 32, 33, 35, 36; trade-offs between sources of, 32–33. See also Federal funding; Local funding; State funding
Government-nonprofit relationship, 59, 66, 375–391; changes in, in United Kingdom, 319–321; co-optive, 388–389; complementary, 387–388; conceptual framework for, 383–391; confrontational, 385–387; contracting and, 137, 138–139; cooperative, 384–385; customer types and, 401; four-C's model of, 351, 383–391; literature review on, 382–383; management support organizations and, 128; public trust and, 323–324; rise of nongovernmental organizations and, 376–377; social networks and, 359; strategic focus in, 390–391; tension in, 379–382; theories of, 382–383; unionization and changes in, 305–306, 315–316; worldwide trends in, 376–377, 380–382. See also Devolution; Government contracting; Privatization
Government Performance and Results Act of 1993, 95
Government repression, 386–387
Grand Rapids, Michigan, Arbor Circle Corporation of, 137–151
Grant-making trusts, 15–16. See also Foundations
Grassroots associations (GAs): characteristics of, 103; commercialization and, 370; community, 104–106; development, 106–108; effectiveness factors for, 104–112; examples of, 103; external impacts of, 103–112; government-mandated versus non-government-mandated, 104–105; health and service, 108; models of effectiveness of, 109–110; paid-staff nonprofits compared to, 109–110, 111–112; peer ratings of, 109
Gray, S. T., and Associates, Evaluation with Power: A New Approach to Organizational Effectiveness, Empowerment, and Excellence, reviewed, 93–101
Greenpeace, 386
Gross national product (GNP), 192–193
Growth: basis of rational plan for, 190–191; generic modes of, 189; measurements for planning, 191–194; models of, 188–189; planning, for international nongovernmental organizations, 185–200
"Guns and Butter" dilemma, 95

H

Harris, M.: "The Changing Challenges of Management and Leadership in the U.K. Voluntary Sector: An Interview with Stuart Etherington," 319–324; Editor's Notes, 1–3, 125–126, 231–232; Organizing God's Work: Challenges for Churches and Synagogues, reviewed, 457–462
"Has the Time Come to Reevaluate Evaluation? or, Who Will Be Accountable for Accountability?", 93–101; commentary on, 341–344
Head office syndrome, 430
Health Canada, 471
Health care organizations: alternative, 411–413; commercialization in, 355, 356; unionization of, 307
Health clinic case study, service-customer matrices in, 406–408, 416–417
Health grassroots associations: defined, 108; effectiveness factors for, 108
Health information management (HIM), scenario planning for, 77–82
HMOs, quality of nonprofit versus for-profit, 235
"Healthy Organizations, Unhealthy Communities?", 355–373
Herman, R. D., Commentary, 473
Hernandez, C. M., "When Change Hits the Fan," 451–455
Hierarchical organization, transformation from, in case study, 451–455
History museums, funding determinants for, 33–36. See also Museums, art and history
Hodgkinson, V. A., "Defining the Nonprofit Sector Cross-Nationally: Differing Cultures, Roles, and Histories," 209–214
Hospitals, 403; private takeover of, 355; teaching, 65–66

"House Divided, A: How Nonprofits Experience Union Drives," 305–317
Housing development partnerships, 366, 367
Houston Ballet, 171, 174, 175, 176
"How Should an International NGO Allocate Growth? A Growth Plan for PLAN International," 185–201
Howe, F., commentary on, 117–119
Hughes, P. N., "The Relationship Among Funding Sources for Art and History Museums," 21–37
Human resource management, as motivation for unionization, 311–312
Human service organizations, defined, 255. See also Social service organizations
Human services, defined, 255. See also Social services

I

Identity labeling, 174–175
"Impact of Devolution on Nonprofits, The: A Multiphase Study of Social Service Organizations," 57–70
Implementation phase of merger, 145–147
Inclusivity criterion, 252
"'Income Gap' and the Health of Arts Nonprofits, The: Arguments, Evidence, and Strategies," 271–286
Income gap of arts organizations, 271–284; cost disease theory of, 274–277, 281; deficit increase and, 271–272; defined, 272; implications and strategies for, 280–284; reasons for, 272–273; solutions to, based on organizational size, 281–284; solutions to, demand-side, 278–280; solutions to, supply-side, 277–278, 280, 281–284
India, 381
Information technology: and health information management scenario planning, 77–82; professional practice and, 72; as social service organization survival strategy, 296
Inglis, S., "Roles and Responsibilities of Community Nonprofit Boards," 153–167
Institute of Museum Services (IMS), 25, 26
Institutional isomorphism, 425
Institutionalism theory, 289–290
Insurance companies, multinational, 403
Integration, policy-centered and program-centered, 129
Interest-based means-ends model, 387
Interest groups, 104
Internal Control Index, 438, 439
Internal locus of control, 436, 437, 438, 439, 441
International Campaign to Ban Landmines (ICBL), 385
International Encyclopedia of Public Policy and Administration (Shafritz), reviewed, 325–329
International nongovernmental organizations (INGOs), 185–200; flexibility of, 194, 197; geographic expansion of, growth planning for, 185–200; government relationships of, 375–391; growth challenges of, 185, 189; PLAN International case study of, 185–200; responsiveness of, 194, 197; rise of, 376–377. See also PLAN International
Interorganizational networks, 359, 364–366. See also Social networks
"Interview with David Billis, An," 85–92
Intraorganizational networks, 359. See also Social networks
Israel, 381
Italy, nonprofit sector in, 212–213

J

Japan, 381, 386
Jeavons, T. H., "Understanding Congregations as Voluntary Organizations: New Insights for the Nonprofit Sector," 457–462
Johns Hopkins Comparative Nonprofit Sector Project, 209
Judging-perceptive, 438, 441
Jungian theory of personality, 438

K

Kadel-Taras, S., "The Role of Nonprofit Management Support Organizations in Sustaining Community Collaborations," 127–136
Kähler, J., "Returns on Fundraising Expenditures in the Voluntary Sector," 5–19

Kahnweiler, W. M., "A Collaborator Profile for Executives of Nonprofit Organizations," 435–450
Kent County Community Mental Health (CMH), 142, 145, 150, 151
Kent County Family Independence Agency (FIA), 145, 150
Kenya, government clampdown of NGOs in, 386, 389
Kettner, P. M., Measuring the Performance of Human Services Programs, reviewed, 93–101
Key attributes of services, 413–414, 415
Kloss, L. L., "The Suitability and Application of Scenario Planning for National Professional Associations," 71–83
Knowledge workers, retention of, 68, 297

L

Lansley, J., "Relating the Central and the Local: Options for Organizational Structure," 421–433
Latin America, 381
Latinos, 327
Leadership: corporate model of, 297; staff's desire for effective, 310–311
League of American Theaters and Producers, 174
Learning organization, 74
Legal definitions: of foundations, 216–217, 218, 221; of nonprofit organizations, 210–211; of nonprofit sector, 325
Leslie, D. R., "When Change Hits the Fan," 451–455
Librarians, unionization of, 307
Life cycle theory, 289
Local-central relationships. See Central-local relationships
Local funding: of art museums, 30, 31, 32–33; of arts organizations, 22, 27; determinants of, for arts organizations, 27; of history museums, 34; relationship of, to other funding sources, 22, 27, 30, 31, 32–33, 34. See also Government funding
Local fundraising: efficiency of, 10; prevalence and use of, 14–15
Local government, as client, 67
Locus of control, 438. See also Internal locus of control
Logistic regression, 240–242, 244
Lohmann, R. A., "Has the Time Come to Reevaluate Evaluation? or, Who Will Be Accountable for Accountability?", 93–101, 341–344
London School of Economics (LSE), Centre for Voluntary Organisation, 85–86
Low-autonomy organizations, 289
Loyalty conflicts, in neighborhood coalition, 203–207
Luksetich, W. A., "The Relationship Among Funding Sources for Art and History Museums," 21–37
Lundstrom, T., The Nonprofit Sector in Sweden, reviewed, 209–214
Lutheran Church, in Sweden, 213
Luxury cruises, 284

M

Magnabosco, J. L., Outcomes Measurement in the Human Services: Cross-Cutting Issues and Methods, reviewed, 93–101
Major gift fundraising: efficiency of, 10, 16; prevalence and use of, 14
Managed care: impact of, on social service organizations, 65–66, 67, 141, 143; unionization and, 306
Management style, unionization and, 310–312
Management support organizations (MSOs), 125, 127–135; characteristics of, 128; community support organization (CSO) model for, 135; missions of, 134–135; Nonprofit Enterprise at Work (NEW) example of, 128–135; role of, in sustaining community collaborations, 127–135
Managers: of arts organizations, perceptions of, of organization visibility, 170–171; board relationship with, 323; changes in, 323; funders and, 322; perspectives of, on nonprofit unionization, 308, 309, 311, 312–313, 315; women versus men, prevalence of, 252, 259, 261–263; women versus men, standards for, 266. See also Executive headings
Manpower Services Commission, 322

March of Dimes, 294
Marginality, 437, 438, 439, 441
Market failure theory, 235, 246
Market sector, defined, 378
Marketing, as social service organization strategy, 296–297
Marketization of nonprofit sector, 62, 69; in 1980s, 291–292; as worldwide trend, 209–210. See also Commercialization; Professionalization
Martin, L. L., Measuring the Performance of Human Services Programs, reviewed, 93–101
Masaoka, J., "A House Divided: How Nonprofits Experience Union Drives," 305–317
Maternity leave policies, 262
McClellan, A., "Resisting Invisibility: Arts Organizations and the Pursuit of Persistent Presence," 169–183
McPeak, M., "How Should an International NGO Allocate Growth? A Growth Plan for PLAN International," 185–201
Means and ends, in government-nonprofit relationships, 383–391
Measuring the Performance of Human Services Programs (Martin and Kettner), reviewed, 93–101
Medicaid reimbursement: for merged organization, 150; pressures of, 64, 65, 69
Member-owners, 401
Men, collaboration and, 444–445
Mental Retardation and Developmental Disability, 294
Mercy Respite Center (MRC), 142, 143, 147
Merger, 125, 322; Arbor Circle Corporation case study of, 140–151; contracting pressures and, 136–138; decision-making phase of, 141–143; defined, 138; evaluation phase of, 147–150; funding sources and, 148–150; implementation phase of, 145–147; incentives for, 139–140; lessons for, 150–151; planning phase of, 143–145; process of, 140–150; risks of, 140, 151; as social service organization survival strategy, 125, 137–151; staffing and, 148; success factors in, 150
"Merger as a Strategic Response to Government Contracting Pressures: A Case Study," 137–152
Michigan: government reorganization in, 140–141; management support organization in, 128–135; merger case study in, 140–151
Miles to Go: A Personal History of Social Policy (Moynihan), reviewed, 93–101
Minority issues, 327–329
Mission: board roles related to, 156, 157, 159, 160, 161; conflict in loyalties and, 203–207; conflict in social service organizations, 65, 69, 299–300; strategic drift and, 187–188, 190
Model Cities Program, 104
Montreal, nontraditional medicine NPO in, 411–413
Moral responsibility, of board members, 155
Moynihan, D. P., Miles to Go: A Personal History of Social Policy, reviewed, 93–101
Mullen, E. J., Outcomes Measurement in the Human Services: Cross-Cutting Issues and Methods, reviewed, 93–101
Multiplicative growth strategies, 188–189
Murphy, F., Commentary, 475–476
Murray, V., Commentary, 473–474
Museums, art and history: characteristics of, as funding variable, 29, 30, 31, 34, 35; commercialization of, 366; earned income of, 28; federal funding of, 25–26, 30, 32–33; funding interactions for, 21–37; funding sources for, 25–36; local funding of, 22, 27, 30, 31, 34; private funding of, 27–28, 31–32, 34–35; state funding of, 26–27, 30, 31; survey of, 30–36
Mutuality, 324
Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, 438, 443

N

Najam, A., "The Four C's of Government Third Sector Relations: Cooperation, Confrontation, Complementarity, and Co-Optation," 375–396
National Association of Citizens' Advice Bureaux (NACAB), 423, 427, 429
National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO), 40, 41–42, 43, 45, 49–50, 52

National Association of Councils for Voluntary Service (NACVS), 428, 429
National Association of Social Workers, 254
National Council for Voluntary Organisations (NCVO), 319, 323, 475–476
National Endowment for the Arts (NEA), 221–222; budget cuts to, 21; funding of, since 1966, 273; grants from, 22, 23, 25–26
National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH), 25, 26
National performance gap, 192–193
National Performance Review, 97
National Public Radio, 361
National Science Foundation, 221
National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC), 423, 426, 427, 428
National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE), 117
Need measurement, for countries, 192–193
Neighborhood associations, 359
Neighborhood coalition, loyalty conflicts in, 203–207
Neighborhood house case study, service-customer matrices in, 408–410, 414, 415
Neighborhoods, social networks in, 357–360. See also Community headings
Net revenues, 6–8
Networks, 298–299, 300
New federalism, 57. See also Devolution
New public management: adaptation responses to, 288–301; ideology and assumptions of, 58, 288
New York, unionization in, 308–309, 314
Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs): defined, as sector, 377–378; history and rise of, 376–377; international (INGOs), 185–200; relationships of governmental organizations with, 375–391. See also Nonprofit organizations
Nonprofit Enterprise at Work (NEW), 128–135; Community Agenda group and, 130–131, 132–133; Continuum of Care and, 133; funding of, 129, 134; implications of work of, 133–135; Nonprofit Consulting Consortium of, 129–130, 131; overview of, 128–130; WISH Collaborative and, 131–133
Nonprofit management: cross-sector study of, 474; styles of, as reason for unionization, 310–312; theory development in, 88–89, 90; top ten ideas for, 1, 349–351; U.K. trends in, 231, 319–324; university-based education for, 85–92
Nonprofit organizations: classification systems for, 117–118; cross-national definitions of, 209–214; with internal versus external focus, 358–359; legal definitions of, 210–211; organizational structures of, 421–432; role of, in supporting community social networks, 356–360; types of, in United Kingdom, 322–323; typology of, based on customer groups, 402. See also Government-nonprofit relationship; Nongovernmental organizations
Nonprofit sector: boundaries of, in academics, 87, 89; boundaries of, relative to public sector, 325–329; defining of, 325–329, 377–378, 476, 477; defining of, cross-nationally, 209–214; diversity within, 390–391; history of commercialization in, 360–361; international perspectives on, 209–214; public sector and, 232, 305–306, 315–316, 321, 325–329, 375–391; unionization in, 305–316; women in, 254–255; women in, glass ceiling for, 251–266
"Nonprofit Sector and Gender Discrimination, The: A Preliminary Investigation into the Glass Ceiling," 251–269
Nonprofit Sector in France, The (Archambault), reviewed, 209–214
Nonprofit Sector in Italy, The (Barbetta), reviewed, 209–214
Nonprofit Sector in Sweden, The (Lundstrom and Wijkstrom), reviewed, 209–214
Nontraditional medicine organization, 411–413
Norway, 386
Nursing homes, 234–235
Nutcracker, The, 173–174, 178–179, 180

O

Occupational Stress Inventory, 438, 439
Occupational stress, role boundary, 436, 437, 438, 439, 441, 443, 444

Office and Professional Employees International Union, 306
Ohio, study of social service organizations in, 58–69, 292–301
Ohio Ballet, 171
Ohio Works First (OWF), 294
"On the Problem of Defining Foundations in a Comparative Perspective," 215–225
One-way resource flow approach, 387
Ontario Community Support Association, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Ontario Healthy Communities Coalition, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Operating foundations, 218, 219, 220, 221. See also Foundations
Operations category of board roles/responsibilities, 162, 163–165
Orangi Pilot Project, 388
Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, 381
Organization-level service-customer matrices, 408–410
Organizational adaptation and survival: boundary-spanning strategy for, 298–299; maintaining public service character and, 299–300; professionalization strategy for, 295–298; strategic expansion strategy for, 293–295; strategies for, in social service organizations, 293–301; theories of, 288–291. See also Social service organizations
Organizational age, 424
Organizational culture: in merged organization, 147; nonprofit, unionization and, 310, 314
Organizational effectiveness: of grassroots associations, factors in, 103–112; of paid-staff nonprofits, 109–110, 111–112; unionization and, 315
Organizational evaluation, 97–98
Organizational growth, 189
Organizational learning, scenarios and, 74–75
Organizational presence, of arts organizations, 169–183; cohesiveness and, 170, 178, 179; disposition and, 170, 176–177, 179; duration and, 170, 177–178, 179; ingredients of, 171–176, 180–181; persistent, 169–183; qualities of, 170, 176–178, 179; reputation and, 177; strategizing about, 180–181
Organizational size: relative efficiency of fundraising methods and, 16; remedies for arts organizations according to, 281–284; survival strategies and, 300–301
Organizational structures: for central-local relationships, 352, 421–432; changing, from hierarchical to egalitarian, in case study, 451–455. See also Central-local relationships
Organizing God's Work: Challenges for Churches and Synagogues (Harris), reviewed, 457–462
Origins, of central-local organization, 423–424
Oster, S. M., Commentary, 474
Ottawa-Carleton Health Department, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Outcomes measurement, 99–100; manuals for, 465, 466, 467; in program evaluation, 333
Outcomes Measurement in the Human Services: Cross-Cutting Issues and Methods (Mullen and Magnabosco), reviewed, 93–101

P

Pakistan, government-nonprofit relationships in, 386–387, 388
Participatory evaluation, 331, 334–339, 464–465, 466; resources for, 466, 467–468
Particularist organizations, 461–462
Partnerships. See Collaborations
Path analysis, 23
Patient Information Manager Scenario, 78, 79
Performance gap analysis, 192–194
Performance measurement: challenges of, for social service organizations, 63; expanded systems model of performance and, 96–97; policy, accountability, and, 95, 96–97, 100–101; program evaluation and, 99–100
Performances, 173–174, 278–279
Performing arts organizations. See Arts organizations; Symphony orchestras
Persistent presence: artistic product and, 175; at arts community level, 182; for arts organizations, 125, 169–183; best practices and, 181; brand validation and, 174–175; charismatic personalities and, 175–176; cohesiveness and, 170, 178, 179; defined, 169–170; disposition and, 170, 176–177, 179; duration and, 170, 177–178, 179; facilities and, 171–173, 180; implications of, 176; ingredients of, 171–176, 181–182; at institutional level, 182; qualities of, 170, 176–178, 179; seasons and performances and, 173–174; at sectoral level, 182; signage and, 171–173; strategizing about, 180–181

Personality characteristics of collaborative executives, 436–437, 442–447
Personnel practices and policies: commercialization and, 364; and glass ceiling for women, 261–263, 265–266; standards for equal access and opportunity for women in, 265–266
Peru, 381
Peters, J. B., "A House Divided: How Nonprofits Experience Union Drives," 305–317
Ph.D.s, 89
Philanthropy, trends in, 361–362, 363
PLAN International (PLAN), 185–200; basis of growth plan for, 190–191; compound index creation of, 192–194; design of growth plan for, 191–194; introduction to, 186–187; need for growth plan for, 187–188; organization and management of, 186–187; performance gap analysis of, 193–194; prioritization matrix of, 195–196; qualitative analysis of, 194, 197; quantitative analysis for, 194–196; results of growth plan for, 198–200; strategic review of, 190–191; use of growth plan for, 198
Planning phase of merger, 143–145
Planning role of board, 156, 157, 160, 161, 162
Planning tool, program evaluation as, 336–337
Pledges, changes in, 45–46, 52–54
Policy: defined, 378–379; evaluation and, 93–96, 97–98, 100–101; for nonprofit child-care facilities, 246–247; nonprofit sector and, 325–329, 378–379, 380–391; religious congregations and, 459–460; service quality and, 67
Policy setting, board, 157, 161, 162
Political advocacy: as board role/responsibility, 156, 163; central-local relationship in organizations of, 424, 429; challenge of, with multiple dependencies on government, 66; government-nonprofit relationship and, 391; of grassroots associations, 103–106; networking and, 298; nonprofit sector and, 328; in United Kingdom, 322–323
Political context of unionization, 313–314
Political entities, nonprofit organizations as, 58
Political growth, 189
Positioning strategies, 400, 414, 416–417; defined, 414; example of using service-customer matrices for, 416–417
Power symmetry/asymmetry, in government-nonprofit relationships, 384–385, 386–387, 389
Pressure or interest groups, 104
Prichard, D. C., "Where Loyalties Lie," 203–207
Primary consumers, defined, 234
Primeval policy soup, 378–379
Principals, defined, 234
Private giving: to art museums, 31–32; to arts organizations, 22, 27–28, 278; determinants of, 22–24, 27–28, 31–32, 35–36; to history museums, 34–35; relationship of, to other funding sources, 22–24, 27–28, 31–32, 33, 35, 36; to universities, 47
Private grants, inclusion of, as fundraising benefits, 41–42, 50–52
Private independent foundations, 217, 218, 220. See also Foundations
"Private Nonprofits in a Public Sector Compendium," 325–329
Privatization, as worldwide trend, 209–210, 213–214, 320–321. See also Devolution; Federal funding cutbacks; Government contracting
Profamilia, 385
Professional associations: characteristics of, 71; scenario planning for, 71–82

Professional service organizations, central-local relationship in, 422–423, 424–426, 429
Professionalization: central-local structures and, 424–426; of reform, 96, 100; of social service organizations, as adaptation strategy, 295–298; of social service organizations, pressures for, 62–63. See also Commercialization
Program evaluation, 99–100, 232, 331–339, 341–344; audiences of, 333; credibility factors for, 337, 338, 339; data collection methods in, 334; effectiveness factors for, 336–338, 339; external-evaluator, traditional model of, 331, 333–334, 337, 338, 465, 466, 467; motivations and uses for, 333, 336; participatory model of, 331, 334–339, 464–465, 466; responsibility for conducting, 333–334, 337; stakeholders of, listed, 334; study findings on, 332–338; study methodology on, 332. See also Evaluation
"Program Evaluation Practice in the Nonprofit Sector," 331–339
Program logic evaluation model, 464–465; resources for using, 465, 466, 467
Promotion of women, 252, 261–263
PTA chapters, 358, 370
Public Interest, 95–96
Public perceptions of arts organizations, 170, 178–179, 180–181. See also Persistent presence
Public policy. See Policy
Public radio station, 366
Public relations, as fundraising cost, 43
Public sector, nonprofit sector and, 232, 305–306, 315–316, 321, 325–329, 375–391. See also Government contracting; Government-nonprofit relationship
Purchase-of-service agreements, 139

Q

Qualitative analysis for growth planning, 194, 197
Quantitative growth, 189–200. See also Geographic expansion
Quasi-foundations, 220
Quasi-markets, 424–425

R

Racial tension, unionization and, 314
Reagan administration, 291–292, 360
Rebello-Rao, D., "Resisting Invisibility: Arts Organizations and the Pursuit of Persistent Presence," 169–183
Regionalization challenges, 323–324
Regression methodology, 240, 260, 262
Regulation, of fundraising expenditures, 6–7
Rehearsal time, 276, 277
Reimbursement, service, impact of requirements for, on social service organizations, 64, 65, 66–67, 69
"Relating the Central and the Local: Options for Organizational Structure," 421–433
"Relationship Among Funding Sources for Art and History Museums, The," 21–37
Relief organizations, 385. See also International nongovernmental organizations
Religious congregations, 352, 457–462; community and, 457–462; culture and, 460; organizational change in, 457–459; as particularist organizations, 461–462; public policy and, 459–460; social capital and, 459–462; value of studying, 457, 459, 461
Religious organizations, direct mail revenues of, 11–12. See also Faith-based social service organizations
Reputation, presence and, 177
Research missions, impact of managed care on, 65–66
Research organizations, central-local relationship in, 424, 429
Research Reports: "The Effective Grassroots Association II: Organizational Factors That Produce External Impact," 103–116; "Evaluation Resources for Nonprofit Organizations: Usefulness and Applicability," 463–472; "On the Problem of Defining Foundations in a Comparative Perspective," 215–225; "Program Evaluation Practice in the Nonprofit Sector," 331–339

Residential treatment center for women case study, 352, 451–455; case study questions for, 454; teaching notes for, 454
Resistance to organizational change, in case study, 451–455
"Resisting Invisibility: Arts Organizations and the Pursuit of Persistent Presence," 169–183
Resource dependency theory, 289, 290
Resource planning category of board roles/responsibilities, 162, 163–165
Responsiveness: in central-local organizational structures, 422, 425; of international nongovernmental organizations, 194, 197
"Returns on Fundraising Expenditures in the Voluntary Sector," 5–19
Rivals, understanding, 400, 411–413
Rockefeller Foundation, 216
Role ambiguity, 436, 437, 438, 441, 443, 445–446
Role conflict, 436
"Role of Nonprofit Management Support Organizations in Sustaining Community Collaborations, The," 127–136
"Role of the Economic Sector in the Provision of Care to Trusting Clients, The," 233–249
"Roles and Responsibilities of Community Nonprofit Boards," 153–167
Roman Catholic Church, European nonprofits and, 211, 212
Rooney, P. M., "A Better Method for Analyzing the Costs and Benefits of Fundraising at Universities," 39–56
Royal Baltic Music Festival, 284
Royal Dutch/Shell scenario planning, 73, 74–75, 77

S

Saidel, J. R., "An Interview with David Billis," 85–92
Salamon, L. M., Defining the Nonprofit Sector: A Cross-National Analysis, reviewed, 209–214
Salary disparities for women, 251, 252, 253, 259–260, 264–265; age and, 260; education and, 260; future research on, 264–265
Samples, convenience, 437–438
San Francisco Bay area, unionization in, 306, 308–309, 313, 314
Sargeant, A., "Returns on Fundraising Expenditures in the Voluntary Sector," 5–19
Scaling up, 189, 190
Scenario planning: at American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA), 77–82; challenges of, 80–81; defined, 71, 73–74; history of, 73–74; intuitive school of, 74; for national professional associations, 71–82; organizational learning and, 74–75; preparation for, 77–78; process for, 75–76; quantitative school of, 74; schools of, 73–74; value of, 76, 79–80, 82
Scope economies, 278
Seasons, performing arts, 173–174
Seattle nonprofit health clinic case study, 406–408, 416–417
Seattle protest, 386
Secondary consumers, defined, 234
Sector boundaries: defining, 325–329, 377–378; defining, for service-customer matrices, 410–411; nonprofit management education and, 87, 89
Sectoral service-customer matrices, 410–413
Segmentation, of customers, 401–403
Self-help organizations, central-local relationship in, 423, 424, 429, 430
Self-interest, 363
Self-Other theory of personality, 439
Self-reliance, 360
Semipublic organizations, 61
Senior care, 233
Sensing-intuitive, 438, 441
Service-customer matrices (SCMs), 352, 397–418; agent, 405; in alternative treatment case study, 411–413; basic service-customer matrices (Step 3) in, 404–410; benefits of, 398, 400; cell entries for, 405–406; client, 404, 405; constructing sectoral (Step 4), 410–413; customer axis of, 404–405; defined, 404; health clinic case study, 406–408, 416–417; identifying and categorizing services (Step 2) in, 403–404; identifying and segmenting customers (Step 1) in, 400–403; mapping key attributes (Step 5) in, 413–414, 415;

in neighborhood house case study, 408–410, 411, 414, 415; organization-level, 408–410, 411; overview of, 398–400; practical considerations of, 417–418; sector definition in, 410–411; sponsor, 404–405, 410, 411; steps of, summarized, 398, 399; using, 406–410, 410, 417–418; using, for positioning strategy, 414, 416–417
Service delivery: board roles related to, 160, 162, 163; organizations in United Kingdom, 322–323
Service development, board roles related to, 160, 162, 163
Service Employees International Union (SEIU), 306, 313
Service grassroots associations: defined, 108; effectiveness factors for, 108
Service quality: in child-care facilities, variables of, 236–247; devolution's impact on, 66–67; of nonprofit versus for-profit dependent-care facilities, 231, 233–247
Service variability, 424
Services: client-driven, 400; defined, 403; identification and categorization of, 398, 400, 403–404; key attributes of, 398, 413–414, 415; sponsor-driven, 400. See also Service-customer matrices; Social services
Shafritz, J. M., International Encyclopedia of Public Policy and Administration, reviewed, 325–329
Shatten, R., Commentary, 476
Shell. See Royal Dutch/Shell
Signage, arts organization, 171–173
Simultaneous equation system, 22, 24, 25–29; applied to art museum funding, 30–33; applied to history museum funding, 33–36
Single-equation systems, 24
Smith, D. H., "The Effective Grassroots Association II: Organizational Factors That Produce External Impact," 103–116
Smith, S. R., "Healthy Organizations, Unhealthy Communities?", 355–373
Smithsonian Institution, 174
Social capital, 64, 135; integral neighborhoods and, 357; nonprofit commercialization and, 350, 351, 362–371; religious congregations and, 459–462; social networks and, 356–360
Social economy, 320
Social movement groups, 104
Social networks: community capacity and, 356–360, 365–366; defined, 356; formal versus informal, 360; interorganizational, 359–360, 364–365; intraorganizational, 359–360; measuring the quality of, 369–370; nonprofit commercialization and, 355–371; restructuring, 364–366; stability of, 367–368
Social Orientation Tasks, 438, 439
Social sector, 476. See also Nonprofit sector
Social Security Act, Title IV-A, 138
Social service organizations: accountability in, 93–101; adaptation strategies of, 287–301; "at risk" populations served by, 61–62; boundary-spanning activities of, 298–299; business management strategy of, 295–298; categories of, 60–61; collaborations of, management support organization role in, 127–135; commercialization of, 365; Cuyahoga County, Ohio, study of, 58–69, 292–301; glass ceiling for women in, 251–266; impact of devolution on, 57–69, 137–138, 289–301; impact of government funding on, 59; increased need for services from, 63–65; merger strategy for, 125, 137–151; multiple dependencies of, 66; nonprofit management education on, 87; professionalization of, 62–63, 295–298, 424–426; program evaluation of, 331–339; public service character of, maintaining, 65–66, 69, 299–300; sector bifurcation of, 62–63; staffing challenges of, 68, 297; strategic expansion strategy of, 293–295; strategic responses of, to the 1980s, 291–292; survival strategies of, 127, 137–138, 231, 287–301; unionization in, 307, 315–316
Social services: complexity of problems and, 64–65; epidemic of need for, 63–65, 435; government-nonprofit complementarity in, 387–388; government-nonprofit cooperation in, 385
Social status, in support for the arts, 279, 283–284
Social utility, evaluation tool to determine, 343

Social welfare, measuring, for countries, 192–193
Social worker unions, 307–308, 315
South Africa, 320
Special events. See Local fundraising
Sponsors: defined, 400–401; identification and segmentation of, 400–403; key attributes valued by, 413; in service-customer matrices, 404, 406–408, 410, 411. See also Service-customer matrices
Stability of social networks, 367–368
Staff: commercialization and, 363, 364; conflicts between community and, 203–207; organizational change and, 451–455; as program evaluation stakeholders, 334; reactions of, to professionalization, 297–298
Staffing: of arts organizations, 175–176, 177; board roles related to, 157, 159, 160, 163; of merged organization, 148; of social service organizations, 68, 297
Stakeholders: consulting, about social service organization merger, 145; divergent, 290; identification of key, 321–322; impact of commercialization on linkages with, 363–364, 365–366; program evaluation involvement of, 331, 334–339; reaction of internal, to professionalization, 297–298
State-administered foundations, 218, 220–221
State funding: of art museums, 30, 32; of arts organizations, 22, 23, 26–27; determinants of, for arts organizations, 23–24, 26–27, 30, 31; of history museums, 33, 35; regional differences in, 27, 29, 31, 34; relationship of, to other funding sources, 22, 23, 26–27, 30, 31, 32–33. See also Government funding
State sector, 378. See also Public sector
State-sponsored foundations, 218–219, 220–221
Strategic activities, as board role/responsibility factor, 161, 162, 163–165
Strategic analysis, 397–398; service-customer matrices (SCMs) approach to, 399–418
Strategic constituencies, 290
Strategic decision making, 81–82, 351–353
Strategic drift, international nongovernmental organization geographic expansion and, 187–188, 190
Strategic expansion, 293–295
Strategic institutional interests, 390–391
Strategic management, 73. See also Scenario planning
Strategic philanthropy, 362
Strategic planning: in nonprofit organizations, 72–73, 81; scenario planning in context of, 80; in social service organizations, 296, 297. See also Scenario planning
Strategies, divergence and convergence of, government-nonprofit relationship, 383–391
SWOT (strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, threats) analysis, 294–295, 397–398
Subsidiaries, for-profit, 365
Substance abuse treatment for women, 451–454
"Suitability and Application of Scenario Planning for National Professional Associations, The," 71–83
Supplementary relations, 387
Supporting organizations, as foundations, 222
Sweden, nonprofit sector in, 213–214
Symbiosis, 388
Symphony orchestras: concert innovations of, 278–279; income gap for, 271–272; productivity growth/nongrowth in, 275–277; size of, and return on investment, 281–282; visibility of, 169–183
Systems model of performance, 96–97

T

Tanglewood Festival, 283
Tax advantages: as determinant of giving, 22, 23–24, 28; for nonprofit versus for-profit child-care facilities, 245
Tax law: definition of foundations in, 216–217; definition of nonprofit sector in, 325, 328
Tax Reform Act (TRA) of 1969, 216, 217, 223
Taylor, M., "Relating the Central and the Local: Options for Organizational Structure," 421–433
Teaching hospitals, impact of managed care on, 65–66
Technological advances: impact of, on arts organizations, 273–274, 277, 281; professional practice and, 72; for social service organizations, 296

Telemarketing: efficiency of, 10, 12–13; prevalence and use of, 12
Thayer, C. E., "Program Evaluation Practice in the Nonprofit Sector," 331–339
Thinking-feeling, 437, 438, 441, 443
Toepler, S., "On the Problem of Defining Foundations in a Comparative Perspective," 215–225
Top-down strategies, 421–422
Top ten ideas for nonprofit management, 1, 349–351
Trade associations, 422
Traditional-established social service organizations, 60–61, 62–63, 292, 299–300
Trust: government-nonprofit relationship and, 323–324; social networks and, 356–360, 362, 367, 369
Trust fundraising: efficiency of, 10, 16; prevalence and use of, 15–16
Trusts, foundation, 216. See also Foundations
Tuckman, H. P., Commentary, 117–119
Twelve-step anonymous-format self-help groups, 104
Two-stage least squares, 25, 28–29

U

Uncertainties and risks, identification of, in scenario planning, 80–81
Under-five mortality rate (U5MR): as measurement of need, 192; using, for geographic expansion planning, 192–194, 198–200; world average, 187–188
"Understanding Congregations as Voluntary Organizations: New Insights for the Nonprofit Sector," 457–462
Unger, I., The Best of Intentions: The Triumphs and Failures of the Great Society Under Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon, reviewed, 93–101
Unified organizations, 422
Unionization of nonprofit sector, 231, 305–316; desire for decision-making involvement as motivation for, 309–310, 316; literature review on, 306–308; management and human resource management styles and, 310–312; managers' perspectives on, 308, 309, 311, 315; motivations for, 309–314; nonmonetary motivations for, 307, 309–312; organizational factors in, 314–315; political context of, 313–314; racial tension as motivation for, 314; reasons for increased interest in, 305–306; study background and methodology for, 308–309; themes of, 309–314; wages and benefits issues in, 312–313
United Community Workers, 306
United Kingdom: central-local organizational structures in, 421–432; management support organization in, 128; "New Labour" government in, 320, 322–323; nonprofit definition in, 210; nonprofit management trends in, 231, 319–324, 475–476; nonprofit sector trends in, 319–321, 381; relative efficiency of fundraising methods in, 1, 5–17; restructuring in, 425–426; university-based nonprofit management and leadership education in, 85–92
United Nations classification system, 210–211
UNICEF, 192
United States: demographic trends in, 233, 252, 327; foundations in, 215–218, 220–223; nonprofit sector in, 210, 325–329, 381
U. S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), 150
U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), 133
U. S. Internal Revenue Code, 216–217, 222, 255, 325
U. S. Jaycees Mission Inn Foundation, 150
United Way-affiliated organizations, 110, 134, 256
United Way funding, 291
United Way of America, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
University-based nonprofit management and leadership education, 85–92. See also Education
University fundraising cost-benefit analysis methodology, 39–55; alumni, public, and constituent relations in, 43; asset management in, 43–44, 48–50, 52–54; campus study of, 46–55; changes in pledge and bequest expectancies in, 45–46, 52–54; development office costs in, 43–44, 48–50, 52–54; implications of, 54–55; presidents' and deans' time in, 42–43; private grants in, 41–42, 50–52

"Using Service-Customer Matrices in Strategic Analysis of Nonprofits," 397–420

V

Validation, brand, 174–175
Values assessment, 474–475
Vertical relationships, 359, 364
Vining, A. R., "Using Service-Customer Matrices in Strategic Analysis of Nonprofits," 397–420
Vinokur-Kaplan, D., "The Role of Nonprofit Management Support Organizations in Sustaining Community Collaborations," 127–136
Voluntary associational sector, defined, 378. See also Nonprofit sector
Voluntary organizations. See Nongovernmental organizations; Nonprofit organizations
Voluntary sector. See Nonprofit sector
Volunteer management, 351
Volunteer retention, 297
Volunteer Victor, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Volunteerism, commercialization and, 368–369

W

Wages: for arts personnel, 274–275, 281; for child-care staff, 236, 237, 238–240, 241, 243; as motivation for unionization, 312–313. See also Salary disparities for women
War on Poverty, 95
Washtenaw County, Michigan, management support organization in, 128–135
Weaver, L., "Roles and Responsibilities of Community Nonprofit Boards," 153–167
Welfare reform, 57–58; accountability and, 95–96; epidemic of need due to, 63–65
Whaling, 386
"When Change Hits the Fan," 451–455
"Where Loyalties Lie," 203–207
Wijkstrom, F., The Nonprofit Sector in Sweden, reviewed, 209–214
WISH (Washtenaw Integrated Supported Housing) Collaborative, 131–133
Women: collaboration and, 444–445; of color versus white, 265; glass ceiling for, 231, 251–266; in nonprofit sector workforce, 254–255; in workforce, 252
Women's Research Centre, evaluation resource of, 466, 471
Working environment errors, 246–247
Working Together: A Profile for Collaboration, 438, 440
World Conservation Union, 385
World Heritage Convention, 385
Wyszomirski, M. J., "Resisting Invisibility: Arts Organizations and the Pursuit of Persistent Presence," 169–183

Y

Young, D. R., Editor's Notes, 1–3, 125–126, 231–232, 349–354
YMCA organizations, strategic planning in, 72